“IT was a weekend that our family shared together and I am amazed at the bonding that took place. It almost felt spiritual. We are all still processing all the emotions that we felt and it was WONDERFUL. I did not really know what to expect, but it exceeded anything I could have expected.”

Mary Hotopp, wife of 2018 honoree Arthur Hotopp

“The whole experience was very meaningful to me and my family. We really felt like it gave the Vietnam veterans some of the recognition they never received when they came home. My husband and children never had the opportunity to meet my Dad and this weekend gave me the chance to really share him with them.”

Judy Wissel, daughter of 2018 honoree George Land

“Thank you from the bottom of my heart for holding this event and everything you do for the veterans who died after they returned from Vietnam. This ceremony gave me a sense of peace and closure in my husband’s death because of the recognition he finally received for giving his life for his country. Thank you, thank you, thank you.”

Linda Mullen, wife of 2018 honoree Gregory Mullen

IN MEMORY PROGRAM
ABOUT IN MEMORY

Since the Vietnam War ended, thousands of Vietnam veterans have died each year due to Agent Orange exposure, PTSD/suicide, cancer and other causes related to their service. The Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund’s (VVMF) In Memory program honors those who returned home from Vietnam and later died.

The plaque on the grounds of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial site in Washington, D.C. that honors these veterans was dedicated in 2004. It reads: ‘In Memory of the men and women who served in the Vietnam War and later died as a result of their service. We honor and remember their sacrifice.’

In Memory was created in 1993 by the group – Friends of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. VVMF began managing the program and hosting the ceremony in 1999. More than 4,100 veterans have been added to the In Memory Honor Roll since the program began. To see all the honorees, please visit: www.vvmf.org/honor-roll.
